

Brammer plc (the “Company”)
Holdings in Company – AXA Group

Following the disaggregation exemption notified to the FSA under the Disclosure and Transparency Rules on 17 October 2011, AXA SA and its subsidiary notifying Group entities, acting independently from their parent and from each other, no longer have any reportable holdings in Brammer PLC on a Group aggregated basis. However, AXA Investment Managers SA has now crossed upwards the 13% threshold and has a holding of 13,88% and 16 231 186 shares on a Group disaggregated basis as an independent Group subsidiary.
